

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

1.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Which of the following is a kind of storm?

- A) A typhoon
- B) A bill
- C) A sergeant
- D) A boundary

2.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Which of the following would come from a farm?

- A) Organic vegetables
- B) Wool textiles
- C) A person's wardrobe
- D) Short telegraphs

3.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Which of the following would help students taking a test?

- A) Reading in chaos
- B) Sheer luck
- C) Taking martial arts classes
- D) Consistent studying

4.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Who should expect to receive something?

- A) A brave sergeant
- B) A dead man's heir
- C) A man with a strong stance
- D) A man who needs a bill

5.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Which of the following would be loudest?

- A) Cooked poultry
- B) A scrambling woman
- C) A doomed project
- D) Wailing children

6.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Which word is not related to martial arts?

- A) Taekwondo
- B) Karate
- C) Judo
- D) Tango

7.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

What can a person get from poultry?

- A) Meat
- B) Fruit
- C) Pants
- D) Soldiers

8.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

What is part of a person's wardrobe?

- A) A dog
- B) A vegetable
- C) A dress
- D) A teacher

9.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Where would you most likely find a sergeant?

- A) In a store
- B) In an army
- C) In a factory
- D) In a class

10.

Choose the answer that best fits the question.

Which situation is full of chaos?

- A) A man driving a car
- B) Students reading
- C) A girl walking
- D) Armies fighting

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

11. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

The heir of Mr. Smith's fortune ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

12. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

This is a martial matter, ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

13. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

The kids started wailing ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

14. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

I used the telegraph to ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

15. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

Everyone scrambled to ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

16. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

The sergeant ordered the ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

17. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

He's very consistent and ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

18. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

When the cyclone arrives, ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

19. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

The boundary of my land ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

20. Match the phrases to make complete sentences.

First we color the textiles, ____.

- a. there will be a lot of wind and rain
- b. when their toys were taken away
- c. is the fence not the road
- d. and the soldiers should take care of it
- e. other soldiers to march
- f. never really changes his attitude
- g. avoid the rushing water
- h. and then we make them into clothes.
- i. will become very rich
- i. tell my family about the new baby

21. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

During the summer, we always keep a supply of food and water in the basement ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

22. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

He didn't like a strong central government, ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

23. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

He failed the test, ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

24. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

I won't go to fast food restaurants ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

25. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

I was disappointed ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

26. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

The police were called ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

27. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

We all took shelter, ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

28. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

He quickly took out his credit card, ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

29. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

I want to buy a new suit, ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

30. Match the clauses to make complete sentences.

She lost a few kilos ____.

- a. because I only eat organic food
- b. because the event turned into chaos
- c. so he could pay the bill
- d. because she ate only poultry and fruit
- e. but that doesn't mean the school years is doomed
- f. because of their sheer lack of sportsmanship
- g. but my wardrobe is pretty full
- h. so we knew his stance on politics
- i. since the typhoon was raging
- j. because that's when tornados are common

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

31. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

Tom was a farmer who grew organic vegetables and poultry.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

32. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

Paul's wardrobe was filled with clothes from his factory.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

33. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

Tom was a sergeant in the army before running a martial arts school.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

34. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

Martin's stance on discipline was too strong.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

35. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

The brothers learned of their father's death through a telegraph.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

36. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

The brothers could see the land's boundary.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

37. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

The brothers were consistent about what two things?

- A) Good farming and arguing
- B) Bad farming and business
- C) Bad business and arguing
- D) Good business and arguing

38. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

The brothers were almost knocked down by _____.

- A) Tom's bills
- B) the chaos of the storm
- C) Paul's wardrobe
- D) the sheer force of the wind

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

39. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

Why wasn't Paul's textile factory successful?

- A) He was greedy and took home clothes.
- B) He gave away too much money.
- C) He was too disorganized.
- D) He was too mean.

40. THE HEIRS

Martin, Paul and Tom were brothers. They were very different, but they were consistent about two things. They couldn't succeed in business, and they never agreed about anything. Martin was a hardworking farmer, growing organic vegetables and raising poultry. But he was disorganized and forgot to pay his bills. Paul owned a textile factory that produced clothes. He was organized, but he was greedy and took too much clothing. His wardrobe was filled with his own products. Tom was once a sergeant in the army. He ran a martial arts school, but his stance on discipline was too strong. He had almost no students.

One day, they received a telegraph saying that their father had died. They were heirs to his old farm. They planned to sell it as soon as possible, so they went to see it even though there was a terrible storm. The house didn't look great, but there was a lot of land. There was so much, in fact, that they could barely see its boundary.

Suddenly, the storm got worse. The sheer force of the wind almost knocked them over. Martin said, "Look, it's a typhoon!" Paul said, "No, it's a cyclone." Tom said, "No, it's a tornado!" They argued until Paul began to wail and said, "Whatever it is, it's coming right at us! We're doomed!" The three brothers scrambled inside the old house. Martin said, "If we survive, we must stop fighting. This farm could be great if we fixed it up. With my hard work, Paul's organization and Tom's discipline, we could run a great business together!" The storm finally ended. And luckily, it didn't wreck the farm.

"Just think," Martin said, "it took the chaos of a typhoon to bring us together." Paul replied, "You mean a cyclone brought us together." Tom said, "Didn't I tell you both that it was a tornado?" The brothers never agreed on what kind of storm it was, but by combining their skills, they started a successful farm.

Who was the father's heir?

- A) Martin
- B) Tom
- C) Paul
- D) All three men

4000 Essential English Words 4 Unit 30: The Heirs

Answer Key:

- | | |
|-------|-------|
| 1: A | 21: A |
| 2: A | 22: H |
| 3: D | 23: E |
| 4: B | 24: A |
| 5: D | 25: F |
| 6: D | 26: B |
| 7: A | 27: I |
| 8: C | 28: C |
| 9: B | 29: G |
| 10: D | 30: D |
| 11: I | 31: B |
| 12: D | 32: A |
| 13: B | 33: A |
| 14: F | 34: B |
| 15: G | 35: A |
| 16: E | 36: B |
| 17: F | 37: C |
| 18: A | 38: D |
| 19: C | 39: A |
| 20: H | 40: D |

www.english-test-online.com

By visiting the link below, you can access the online version of this test and see the most recent updates.

<https://www.english-test-online.com/4000-essential-english-words-4-unit-30-the-heirs/>