

4000 Essential English Words 2 Unit 5: May 29,1953

1. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- praise
- A) a picture border
 - B) to cover
 - C) to show you like something
 - D) to go in a direction
2. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- thick
- A) wide and solid
 - B) having no sound
 - C) clean and untouched
 - D) better or more important
3. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- incredible
- A) oldest
 - B) hard to believe
 - C) wide and solid
 - D) clear and beautiful
4. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- border
- A) a heavy shoe
 - B) a story from the past
 - C) an edge
 - D) a family member
5. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- heaven
- A) of great value
 - B) a place people go when they die
 - C) a family member
 - D) an edge
6. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- surround
- A) to show you like something
 - B) to close in from all sides
 - C) to say you are happy for someone
 - D) to cover
7. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- ancestor
- A) a family member from the past
 - B) of great value
 - C) a heavy shoe
 - D) to slowly fall in
8. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- boot
- A) an edge
 - B) a story from the past
 - C) a family member
 - D) a heavy shoe
9. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- proceed
- A) to cover
 - B) to go in a direction
 - C) to close in from all sides
 - D) to show you like something
10. Choose the right definition for the given word.
- silent
- A) more important
 - B) oldest
 - C) having no sound
 - D) hard to believe

4000 Essential English Words 2 Unit 5: May 29,1953

11. MAY 29,1953

Today is the most important day of my life. I finally climbed Mt. Everest, the tallest mountain in the world.

The top of the mountain was amazing. It felt like we were close to heaven. The snow was so thick that my boots sank. The air was silent. I looked at the beauty that surrounded me. Maybe my story will be a legend someday.

I want people to remember this forever. I was the senior explorer in my group, and I knew we needed proof of our climb. I took many pictures with my camera. I'll put them in a frame and hang them.

On the mountain, the air was very cold. I wrapped my coat around my body. I looked over the side of the mountaintop. From that angle, I saw the border of the clouds touch the rocks below. The snow was thick. It looked pure. There was no sign of modern life. Thousands of years ago, my ancestors saw the world this way.

After fifteen minutes, I knew it was time to proceed down the mountain. The whole team congratulated us. My superior, John Hunt, praised us all. I sent messages to my relatives to tell them that I was safe. But it was hard to leave the mountain so quickly. I wanted to enjoy the incredible sight even longer.

What is this story about?

- A) Edmund Hillary's incredible experience
- B) The lives of Edmund Hillary's ancestors
- C) The legend of Mt. Everest
- D) How to use a camera when surrounded by snow

12. MAY 29,1953

Today is the most important day of my life. I finally climbed Mt. Everest, the tallest mountain in the world.

The top of the mountain was amazing. It felt like we were close to heaven. The snow was so thick that my boots sank. The air was silent. I looked at the beauty that surrounded me. Maybe my story will be a legend someday.

I want people to remember this forever. I was the senior explorer in my group, and I knew we needed proof of our climb. I took many pictures with my camera. I'll put them in a frame and hang them.

On the mountain, the air was very cold. I wrapped my coat around my body. I looked over the side of the mountaintop. From that angle, I saw the border of the clouds touch the rocks below. The snow was thick. It looked pure. There was no sign of modern life. Thousands of years ago, my ancestors saw the world this way.

After fifteen minutes, I knew it was time to proceed down the mountain. The whole team congratulated us. My superior, John Hunt, praised us all. I sent messages to my relatives to tell them that I was safe. But it was hard to leave the mountain so quickly. I wanted to enjoy the incredible sight even longer.

What did Hillary see from the angle over the side of the mountaintop?

- A) The sun in the east
- B) His boots on the rocks below
- C) His picture in a frame
- D) The border of the clouds touching the rocks

4000 Essential English Words 2 Unit 5: May 29,1953

13. MAY 29,1953

Today is the most important day of my life. I finally climbed Mt. Everest, the tallest mountain in the world.

The top of the mountain was amazing. It felt like we were close to heaven. The snow was so thick that my boots sank. The air was silent. I looked at the beauty that surrounded me. Maybe my story will be a legend someday.

I want people to remember this forever. I was the senior explorer in my group, and I knew we needed proof of our climb. I took many pictures with my camera. I'll put them in a frame and hang them.

On the mountain, the air was very cold. I wrapped my coat around my body. I looked over the side of the mountaintop. From that angle, I saw the border of the clouds touch the rocks below. The snow was thick. It looked pure. There was no sign of modern life. Thousands of years ago, my ancestors saw the world this way.

After fifteen minutes, I knew it was time to proceed down the mountain. The whole team congratulated us. My superior, John Hunt, praised us all. I sent messages to my relatives to tell them that I was safe. But it was hard to leave the mountain so quickly. I wanted to enjoy the incredible sight even longer.

Hillary was happy to do all of the following EXCEPT _____.

- A) proceed down the mountain
- B) get praise from his superior
- C) hear his team congratulate him
- D) send messages to his relatives

14. MAY 29,1953

Today is the most important day of my life. I finally climbed Mt. Everest, the tallest mountain in the world.

The top of the mountain was amazing. It felt like we were close to heaven. The snow was so thick that my boots sank. The air was silent. I looked at the beauty that surrounded me. Maybe my story will be a legend someday.

I want people to remember this forever. I was the senior explorer in my group, and I knew we needed proof of our climb. I took many pictures with my camera. I'll put them in a frame and hang them.

On the mountain, the air was very cold. I wrapped my coat around my body. I looked over the side of the mountaintop. From that angle, I saw the border of the clouds touch the rocks below. The snow was thick. It looked pure. There was no sign of modern life. Thousands of years ago, my ancestors saw the world this way.

After fifteen minutes, I knew it was time to proceed down the mountain. The whole team congratulated us. My superior, John Hunt, praised us all. I sent messages to my relatives to tell them that I was safe. But it was hard to leave the mountain so quickly. I wanted to enjoy the incredible sight even longer.

According to the passage, the air at the top of the mountain was _____.

- A) silent
- B) thick
- C) pure
- D) senior

4000 Essential English Words 2 Unit 5: May 29,1953

Answer Key:

- | | |
|------|-------|
| 1: C | 8: D |
| 2: A | 9: B |
| 3: B | 10: C |
| 4: C | 11: A |
| 5: B | 12: D |
| 6: D | 13: A |
| 7: A | 14: C |

www.english-test-online.com

By visiting the link below, you can access the online version of this test and see the most recent updates.

<https://www.english-test-online.com/4000-essential-english-words-2-unit-5-may-291953/>